BBBSNCA NEWS

Empowering Youth on Capitol Hill

Some of our dedicated team members participated in Capitol Hill Day, advocating directly to Congress about the vital role mentorship plays in shaping the lives of our local youth. In collaboration with other BBBS affiliates, they united to support important initiatives like the Youth Mentoring Grant, the Youth Workforce Readiness Act, and the RISE from Trauma Act.

Empowering Parents with Strategies for Support

Even the parents of our mentees have the opportunity to grow and learn! During a recent event with AFSP, our mentees' parents gained valuable insights into effective strategies for supporting their teenagers during challenging times. By encouraging parental awareness and open communication, we're empowering families to promote well-being and resilience in our youth.
